

W. S. TIPTON,
W. O. WIGGINS,
Editors.

FOR PRESIDENT,

R. B. HAYES,

OF OHIO.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,

W. A. WHEELER,

OF NEW YORK.

FOR CONGRESS

GEORGE M. DRAKE,

OF HAMILTON.

FOR FLOATER

W. I. DOWELL,

OF POLK.

The name of the great Tammany thief and gambler John Morris was received with applause by the "reform" Democracy in the New York Convention.

Why don't some of the Democratic papers show up Gov. Hayes' character? why don't they show where he has done something wrong? The Memphis Advertiser says it has been watching closely for weeks and can't find anything against him. Then why not everybody vote for him?

Advices to the Knoxville Chronicle from the first district say that Judge Randolph is making himself busy, and that he will beat McFarland for Congress by at least three thousand votes. Hurrah for Randolph and Thornburg—these are sure.

Every one that votes the Democratic ticket endorses Porterism and is thereby a defender of frauds. The Democracy cannot escape Porterism—it is their only hope. Down with Porterism and all other frauds.

The selection of John Kelley as one of the Democratic Electors for the State-at-large, in New York, indicates restored harmony in the party.—Knoxville Tribune.

It also "indicates" that the New York Democracy is lead by thieves the same as every where else.

Horatio Seymour has declined the nomination for Governor of New York on the Tilden ticket. That is a death blow to the Democracy in that State. Seymour was the only man they had with which they stood any chance of defeating Hon. E. D. Morgan. Seymour is a good man—too much so to risk his chances on the ticket with a rail road wrecker. As it now stands New York is almost sure for Morgan and of course Hayes and Wheeler.

A Democrat remarked in Cleveland the other day that the "d—n scoundrels that fought in the federal army were no better than the negro they freed." Such is the line of policy laid down by the Southern Democracy. Are the men that fought in the federal army going to set idly by and let such hell forsaken scoundrels control this country. Recollect that it is the Republican policy that all men are born equal regardless of his political views.

It was a good days work for the people of Tennessee when that ring of Nashville thieves nominated Porter. He is sure to be defeated by either Thomas for Maney. He is the King of corruptionist, and the tax payers don't propose to be defrauded any longer—a change is demanded, and a change is sure to come. In East Tennessee there is a strong feeling against continuing in power these corruptionist, and in Middle and West Tennessee the candidate for the Legislature on the Democratic ticket announcing themselves as "Thomas men," a noticeable fact however is that all the town rings are for Porter while the country people are against him. The Memphis Appeal and the Advertiser—both large daily papers—have taken down the Porter flag and raised that of Thomas.

Republicans go slow! There's tidings ahead!

Dorsey B. Thomas is the man the Republicans have to fight in this campaign. He is gaining ground daily, and if the people of Tennessee that are opposed to repudiation don't watch and work he is going to be elected. Although Porter is the nominee of the Bond Ring, simply to cover up repudiation, Thomas is the man they are going to vote for in November. We know from a recent visit that this is the feeling in Middle and West Tennessee, and East Tennessee will be whipped into line in due time. Republicans organize! be ready to fight the disgrace the Democracy would saddle on our State. Don't be deceived! Thomas is the strongest man and he must be defeated at all hazards.

Yardley, colored, has announced himself a candidate for Governor. Yardley, though a Democrat for the last two years—having supported the Democratic ticket in the last election straight out—has been brought out by the Nashville American and Knoxville Tribune with the hopes that the colored vote would follow him, thereby taking them off of some one else. It is said his expenses of canvassing the State will be paid by the State Democratic Committee.

A Change Needed.

The Nashville American hits the nail on the head at last. Porter and his clique will not do to trust longer in Tennessee. The American says:

"This is the talk of every four voters out of five you meet: 'I go for a change—things cannot be worse, and may be better—a party in power so long as the present gets corrupt, and we must have a change.'"

Our Northwestern exchanges say there is intense excitement over the election in Indiana. Senator O. P. Morton is canvassing the State, and it is said that people come thirty and forty miles to hear the old Veteran speak.

Yardley, the colored Democratic candidate for Governor of Tennessee is a native of Knox county and is thirty five years of age. He is free-born, and as Nasby would say, the color of "noo molasses."

The Knoxville Tribune concedes to Yardley more brains than either Porter or Thomas. We don't see why they should not support him as the "most able man."

There were six Democrats in town last Saturday from the 3d district of this county, and they said they were for Dorsey B. Thomas. If any one denies this we can give their names. Next.

Governor Tilden's private Secretary explains about the former's income returns as follows:

"A lawyer might work for a long time before he got his fee, and a conscientious man would 'of course consider the work he had done from year to year as a 'case progressed, and that the 'fee, though received in one year, 'was not his income for that year, 'it had been in fact, earned each year during the progress of the 'case. That was all there was 'about the matter.'"

Of this explanation the New York Tribune, which has constantly maintained the honesty of Tilden, says: "We have believed Governor Tilden a thoroughly honest man, and have witnessed 'the ridiculous overhauling of 'old railroad transactions in 'which he was counsel, in the effort to prove him personally dishonest, with a feeling of hearty 'disgust. But we beg to say to 'the Governor's Private Secretary that the above explanation of 'the extraordinary statements 'about his income tax is too thin. 'That sort of logic is merely a 'plea for universal dishonesty. It 'would enable the richest man 'in the country to cipher down 'his income in any particular year 'below the possibility of govern- 'ment taxation. The Private 'Secretary, and the astute gentleman who keeps the Private 'Secretary, ought to understand 'that this is mere trifling with a 'business which a little more 'handling of that sort may easily 'make very serious. It is the 'first thing which has really 'touched Governor Tilden's character for integrity. If the facts 'have been correctly reported—and we do not understand the 'Private Secretary to deny them—'this does touch it—seems to 'touch it vitally—and the Private 'Secretary's explanation does not 'mend the matter. We hope there 'is a better one, and shall be glad 'to print it.'"

The Lebanon Herald says the pictures of Tilden and Hendricks that are now being displayed by Democratic newspapers resemble those of ONE-EYED RILEY and the MAN THAT STRUCK BILLY PATTERSON more than they do Tilden & Hendricks.

At Last.

At last the country is aroused to a correct estimate of the possibilities of the future. What are these possibilities? 1. The elevation of Samuel J. Tilden to the Presidency. 2. The restoration of the Democratic party to full control of the administration of the government. 3. The reinstatement of the ex-rebels as dictators of the Democratic party.

Who and what is Tilden? He is a man who received his political education from Martin Van Buren. He is a man who devised nearly every mammoth railway consolidation scheme that has been consummated in this country; he is the great railway wrecker of the age. He is the man who in 1846 withdrew from public life because, as his biography says, "he was able to discern at that early period the importance, in this country at least, of a pecuniary independence for the successful prosecution of a political career," and embarked in the profession of railway wrecking. He was a secessionist in principle in 1860, having made public his views on that question at that time, in almost the exact language employed by Calhoun. He sympathized with rebels and the cause of rebellion from the day of the firing on Fort Sumter down to the surrender of Lee at Appomattox. On the 26th day of December, 1863, he committed perjury. In the month of May last as Governor of New York he filed with the Secretary of State a message or memorandum in which he declared that there had been no reappropriations during the year 1876, whereas the fact is that thirty days before he had signed a reappropriation bill for a large sum; and five days before he had signed a reappropriation bill for another large sum; and on the very day of the date of the message or memorandum he signed two reappropriation bills for the aggregate sum of $800,000. As Governor of New York he made a corrupt agreement with the agent of one Willard Johnson, a Democratic canal contractor, whereby he consented to hold (and did hold) until it should become a law by lapse of time a bill then in his hands providing for the payment of $55,000 to Johnson on a contract which he (Tilden) had in a state paper previously declared corrupt, and upon which Johnson had already received three times the contract price.

This is the leader, the standard-bearer, of the Democratic party. What is the party itself? It is the same party that through its chief, Buchanan, then President, declared that there was no power in the Constitution to coerce a State back into the Union. It is the same party that through other of its chiefs, then Cabinet ministers, scattered the navy to the four corners of the earth, corrupted the army, and stole money from the Treasury to prevent the use of either for the maintenance of the integrity of the Union. It is the same party that through its chiefs in New York City bowed the knee to the British Minister, Lyons, imploring him to counsel his government to intervene in behalf of rebels in arms fighting against the nation. It is the same party that opposed the constitutional amendments conferring freedom and suffrage and civil and political rights upon the black man. It is the same party that voted the war a failure, and demanded peace at any and every sacrifice of national honor. It is the same party that in the last Congress discharged maimed and invalidated soldiers of the Union from the public service, and appointed in their place soldiers of the Confederacy. It is the same party in the last Congress through its rebel representatives defended the atrocities of Andersonville, Libby, and Belle Isle, and through its Northern representatives applauded the defense; and as these two classes of representatives clasped hands, with exulting shouts, over the graves of Union soldiers brutally tortured, cruelly starved, and finally in cold blood assassinated, this same party massacred citizens at Conshatola, Colfax, Vicksburg, New Orleans, and Hamburg. It is the same party that convicts colored men of petty offenses, that it may hire them out to their old owners and taskmasters, to be beaten and starved, chased by bloodhounds, and whipped to death. Is there any doubt that the Democratic party of the nation is the bond slave of the Southern wing of it? Is there any doubt that this Southern wing, once in power, would make of the National Democratic party a tool to nullify the amendments to the Constitution? Is there any doubt that it would find in Tilden that servility which has always been the price of Democratic success?—Inter Ocean.

Footnote and Harris.

The Knoxville Chronicle answers the charges made against ex-Gov. Foote by the Democratic Slanders. The Chronicle says:

The Democratic leaders in Tennessee who were forced, by public sentiment, to drop Gov. Harris from the electoral ticket, are now hard at work trying to make it appear that the selection of Gov. Foote on the Republican electoral ticket is a parallel case. The premises upon which such an erroneous conclusion is based are all false. A man can not make such a charge except through ignorance, or with a desire to wilfully misrepresent. The objection to Gov. Harris is, not so much that he is a rebel, for there are men who are now good Republicans. There is nothing inconsistent in this. If a man who was a rebel now accepts the situation in good faith, he may be a Republican. If he does not accept the situation in good faith, and intends to accomplish, if possible, at the ballot box what he failed to do with the cartridge, then he ought not to be a Republican. The objection to Gov. Harris is, that he is a rebel, for there are men who are now good Republicans. There is nothing inconsistent in this. If a man who was a rebel now accepts the situation in good faith, he may be a Republican. If he does not accept the situation in good faith, and intends to accomplish, if possible, at the ballot box what he failed to do with the cartridge, then he ought not to be a Republican.

The objection to Gov. Harris is, that he is a rebel, for there are men who are now good Republicans. There is nothing inconsistent in this. If a man who was a rebel now accepts the situation in good faith, he may be a Republican. If he does not accept the situation in good faith, and intends to accomplish, if possible, at the ballot box what he failed to do with the cartridge, then he ought not to be a Republican. The objection to Gov. Harris is, that he is a rebel, for there are men who are now good Republicans. There is nothing inconsistent in this. If a man who was a rebel now accepts the situation in good faith, he may be a Republican. If he does not accept the situation in good faith, and intends to accomplish, if possible, at the ballot box what he failed to do with the cartridge, then he ought not to be a Republican.

Gov. Foote was not an extreme man during the war, although he was an avowed rebel. Before the war he defeated Jeff. Davis for Governor of Mississippi, he running on the Union ticket. In the Senate of the United States he supported the compromise measures of which Henry Clay was the author and champion. During the war he opposed the extreme measures of the Southern Confederacy. At the close of the war he accepted its results cheerfully. As he says, he endorsed the sentiments expressed in General Grant's first inaugural address. He has been a warm supporter of the Republican policy ever since. He admits that the rebellion was a mistake. Does Gov. Harris admit anything of the kind? If it were possible to-day that Gen. Lee could be resurrected and, with Gen. Johnson, placed at the head of a Confederate army, and Jeff. Davis placed back at Richmond presiding over the Confederate Government; there is nothing in Harris' record since the war which would render it at all insistent for him to be the same extreme fire-eating rebel he was in 1862. It would be unnecessary for him to make a single explanation as his fidelity to the cause would not be questioned by any one. Not so with Gov. Foote. His rebel associates look upon him as a deserter from their ranks and would punish him as such were it in their power. This is the difference between the two men. One admits that he made a mistake—the other admits nothing, and is as defiant as when he had thirty to fifty thousand Confederate soldiers to carry out his royal edicts.

Struck by Lightning and Instantly Killed. Who is He?

MUSCLE SHOALS CANAL.

August 26th, 1876.

To the Editor of the Herald.
Yesterday evening during a storm, while crossing Tennessee river in a light skiff, a young man was struck by lightning, and was instantly killed.

Help being immediately sent, he was found lying in the bottom of the skiff, his hair and beard partly burnt. Papers found with him, showed that he was of French nationality, had not been but two years living in this country, and had served with distinction in the French army during the late Franco-Prussian war.

Respectfully yours,
C. C. NOEL.

THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

The following is the platform, as adopted by the National Republican Convention that nominated Hayes and Wheeler:

When in the economy of Providence this land was to be purged of human slavery, and when the strength of the Government of the people, by the people, for the people, was demonstrated, the Republican party came into power. Its deeds have passed into history, and we look back to them with pride. Incited by their memories and high aims for the good of our country and mankind, and looking to the future with unflinching courage, hope and purpose, we, the representatives of the party in National Convention assembled make the following declaration of principles:

First. The United States of America as a nation, not a league; by the combined working of the National and State governments under their respective Constitutions, the rights of every citizen are secured at home and protected abroad, and their common welfare promoted.

Second. The Republican party has preserved those governments to be hundredth anniversary of the nation's birth, and they are now emboldened of the great truths spoken at its cradle, that all men are created equal; that they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights, among which are life, liberty, the pursuit of happiness; that the attainment of these ends governments have been instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed; until those truths are cheerfully obeyed, it is to be vigorously enforced, the work of the Republican party is unshaken. The permanent pacification of the Southern section of the Union, the complete protection of all its citizens in the free enjoyment of all their rights are duties to which the Republican party are sincerely pledged. [Applause.] The power to provide for the enforcement of principles embodied in the recent constitutional amendments is vested by the amendments in the Congress of the United States, and we declare it to be the solemn obligation of the legislative and executive departments of the Government to put into immediate and vigorous exercise all their constitutional powers for removing any just causes of discontent on the part of any class, and securing every American citizen complete liberty and equality in the exercise of all civil, political and public rights. [Applause.] To this end we imperatively demand a congress, and chief executive whose courage and fidelity to those duties shall not after until these results are placed beyond dispute or recall. [Applause.]

Fourth. In the first act of congress signed by President Grant, the National government assumed to remove any doubts of its purpose to discharge all just obligations to public creditors, and solemnly pledged its faith to make provision at the earliest practicable period for redemption of the United States notes in coin. [cheers.] Commercial prosperity, public morals and national credit demand that this promise be fulfilled by a continuous and steady progress to specie payment. [Loud and long-continued applause and cheers.]

Fifth. Under the constitution the Presidents and heads of departments are to make nominations for office; the Senate is to advise and consent to the appointments, and the House of Representatives is to accuse and prosecute faithless officers. The best interests of the public service demand that this distinctiveness be respected; that Senators and Representatives who may be judges and accusers, should not dictate appointments to office. The invariable rule for appointments should have reference to the honesty, fidelity and capacity of appointees, giving to the party in power those places where harmony and vigor of administration require its policy to be represented, but permitting all others to be filled by persons selected with sole reference to efficiency of public service, and the right of citizens to share in the honor of rendering faithful service to their country.

Sixth. We rejoice in the quickening conscience of the people concerning political affairs; will hold all public officers to a rigid responsibility, and engage that the prosecution and punishment of all who betray official trusts shall be speedy, thorough and unsparring. [cheers.]

Seventh. The public school system of several States is the bulwark of the American Republic; and with a view to its security and permanence we recommend an amendment to the constitution of the United States, forbidding the application of any public funds or property for the benefit of any schools or institutions under sectarian control. [Great cheering continued several minutes.] In response to repeated calls, Gen. Hawley read the plank a second time, and the deligates and audience repeated the cheers.

The revenue necessary for the current expenditures and the obligations of the public debt must be largely derived from duties upon importations, which so far as possible, should be adjusted to promote the interest of American labor, and advance the prosperity of the whole country.

Ninth. We reaffirm our opposition to further grants of the public lands to corporations and monopolies, and demand that the national domain be devoted to free homes for the people.

Tenth. It is the imperative duty of the government to so modify existing treaties with European governments that the same protection shall be afforded to adopt American citizens that is given to native born, and all necessary laws be passed to protect emigrants in the absence of power in the State for that purpose.

Eleventh. It is the immediate duty of congress to full investigate the effect of the emigration and importation of Mongolians on the moral and material interests of the country.

Twelfth. The Republican party recognizes with approval the substantial advance recently made toward the establishment of equal rights women by the many important amendments affected by Republican Legislatures in the laws, which concern the personal and property relations of wives, mothers and widows, and by the appointment and election of women to the superintendence of education, charities and other public trusts. The honest demand of this class of citizens, for additional rights and privileges and immunities should be treated with respectful consideration.

Thirteenth. The constitution confers upon congress sovereign powers over the territories of the United States for their government, and in the exercise of this power, it is the right and duty of congress to prohibit and extirpate in the territories that relic or barbarianism, polygamy, and we demand such legislation as shall secure this end, and the supremacy of American institutions in all the Territories. [Applause.]

Fourteenth. The pledges which the nation has given to our soldiers and sailors must be fulfilled; the grateful people will always hold those who periled their lives for the country's preservation in the kindest remembrance.

Fifteenth. We sincerely deprecate all sectional feeling and tendencies; we, therefore, note with deep solicitude that the Democratic party counts as its chief hope of success upon the electoral vote of a united South, secured through the efforts of those who were recently arrayed against the nation, and we invoke the earnest attention of the country to the grave truth that a success thus achieved would re-open sectional strife and imperil the national honor and human rights.

Sixteenth. We charge the Democratic party with being the same in character and spirit as when it sympathized with treason, and making it control of the House of Representatives the triumph and opportunity of the nation's recent foes; with reasserting and applauding in the national capital the sentiments of unpatriotic rebellion; with sending Union soldiers to the rear, and with deliberately proposing to repudiate the faithful faith of the Government and obstruction of investigation; with proving itself through the period of its ascendancy in the lower House of Congress utterly incompetent to administer the Government. We warn the country against trusting a party thus alike unworthy, recreant and incapable. [Cheers.]

Seventeenth. The National administration merits commendation for its honorable work in the management of the domestic and foreign affairs, and President Grant deserves the continued and hearty gratitude of the American people for his immense service in war and in peace. [Cheers.]

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

For Scrofula, and all scrofulous diseases. Erysipelas, Ross or St. Anthony's Fire, Eruptions and Eruptive diseases of the Skin, Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys, Lungs, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Blisters, Tumors, Tetters, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Uterine Sores, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Pain in the Bones, Side and Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leucorrhoea, arising from internal ulceration, and uterine disease, Syphilitic and Mercurial diseases, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation, General Debility, and for Purifying the Blood.

This Sarsaparilla is a combination of vegetable alteratives—Sillingia, Mandrake, Yellow Dock—with the Iodides of Potassium and Iron, and is the most efficacious medicine yet known for the diseases it is intended to cure. Its ingredients are so skillfully combined that the full alternative effect of each is assured, and while so mild as to be harmless even to children, it is still so effectual as to purge out from the system those impurities and corruptions which develop into loathsome disease.

The reputation it enjoys is derived from its cures, and the confidence which prominent physicians all over the country repose in it proves their experience of its usefulness. Certificates attesting its virtues have accumulated, and are constantly being received, and as many of these cases are publicly known, they furnish convincing evidence of the superiority of this Sarsaparilla over every other alterative medicine. So generally is its superiority to any other medicine known that we need do no more than to assure the public that the best qualities it has ever possessed are strictly maintained.

PREPARED BY
DR. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass.,
Practical and Analytical Chemists.
SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS EVERYWHERE.

POND'S EXTRACT

The People's Remedy.
The Universal Pain Extract.
Note: ask for POND'S EXTRACT.
Take no other.

"Hear, for I will speak of excellent things."
POND'S EXTRACT—The great Remedy for all kinds of Pain, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Headache, Toothache, Stomachache, Backache, and all other kinds of Pain. It is a certain cure for all these ailments, and is the only one that is so mild as to be harmless even to children, and so effectual as to purge out from the system those impurities and corruptions which develop into loathsome disease.

CHILDREN.—No child can afford to be without Pond's Extract. Accidents, Eruptions, Erysipelas, Cuts, Bruises, and all other kinds of Pain, are cured by it. It is a certain cure for all these ailments, and is the only one that is so mild as to be harmless even to children, and so effectual as to purge out from the system those impurities and corruptions which develop into loathsome disease.

FEMALE WEAKNESSES.—It always relieves the most distressing cases of Female Weakness, Sterility, Leucorrhoea, and all other kinds of Pain. It is a certain cure for all these ailments, and is the only one that is so mild as to be harmless even to children, and so effectual as to purge out from the system those impurities and corruptions which develop into loathsome disease.

ULCERATIONS.—It always relieves the most distressing cases of Ulcerations, Erysipelas, and all other kinds of Pain. It is a certain cure for all these ailments, and is the only one that is so mild as to be harmless even to children, and so effectual as to purge out from the system those impurities and corruptions which develop into loathsome disease.

PILES.—It always relieves the most distressing cases of Piles, Hemorrhoids, and all other kinds of Pain. It is a certain cure for all these ailments, and is the only one that is so mild as to be harmless even to children, and so effectual as to purge out from the system those impurities and corruptions which develop into loathsome disease.

VARIICOSE VEINS.—It always relieves the most distressing cases of Variicose Veins, and all other kinds of Pain. It is a certain cure for all these ailments, and is the only one that is so mild as to be harmless even to children, and so effectual as to purge out from the system those impurities and corruptions which develop into loathsome disease.

KIDNEY DISEASES.—It always relieves the most distressing cases of Kidney Diseases, and all other kinds of Pain. It is a certain cure for all these ailments, and is the only one that is so mild as to be harmless even to children, and so effectual as to purge out from the system those impurities and corruptions which develop into loathsome disease.

TOOTHACHE.—It always relieves the most distressing cases of Toothache, and all other kinds of Pain. It is a certain cure for all these ailments, and is the only one that is so mild as to be harmless even to children, and so effectual as to purge out from the system those impurities and corruptions which develop into loathsome disease.

STOMACHACHE.—It always relieves the most distressing cases of Stomachache, and all other kinds of Pain. It is a certain cure for all these ailments, and is the only one that is so mild as to be harmless even to children, and so effectual as to purge out from the system those impurities and corruptions which develop into loathsome disease.

BACKACHE.—It always relieves the most distressing cases of Backache, and all other kinds of Pain. It is a certain cure for all these ailments, and is the only one that is so mild as to be harmless even to children, and so effectual as to purge out from the system those impurities and corruptions which develop into loathsome disease.

HEADACHE.—It always relieves the most distressing cases of Headache, and all other kinds of Pain. It is a certain cure for all these ailments, and is the only one that is so mild as to be harmless even to children, and so effectual as to purge out from the system those impurities and corruptions which develop into loathsome disease.

TOOTHACHE.—It always relieves the most distressing cases of Toothache, and all other kinds of Pain. It is a certain cure for all these ailments, and is the only one that is so mild as to be harmless even to children, and so effectual as to purge out from the system those impurities and corruptions which develop into loathsome disease.

STOMACHACHE.—It always relieves the most distressing cases of Stomachache, and all other kinds of Pain. It is a certain cure for all these ailments, and is the only one that is so mild as to be harmless even to children, and so effectual as to purge out from the system those impurities and corruptions which develop into loathsome disease.

BACKACHE.—It always relieves the most distressing cases of Backache, and all other kinds of Pain. It is a certain cure for all these ailments, and is the only one that is so mild as to be harmless even to children, and so effectual as to purge out from the system those impurities and corruptions which develop into loathsome disease.

HEADACHE.—It always relieves the most distressing cases of Headache, and all other kinds of Pain. It is a certain cure for all these ailments, and is the only one that is so mild as to be harmless even to children, and so effectual as to purge out from the system those impurities and corruptions which develop into loathsome disease.

TOOTHACHE.—It always relieves the most distressing cases of Toothache, and all other kinds of Pain. It is a certain cure for all these ailments, and is the only one that is so mild as to be harmless even to children, and so effectual as to purge out from the system those impurities and corruptions which develop into loathsome disease.

STOMACHACHE.—It always relieves the most distressing cases of Stomachache, and all other kinds of Pain. It is a certain cure for all these ailments, and is the only one that is so mild as to be harmless even to children, and so effectual as to purge out from the system those impurities and corruptions which develop into loathsome disease.

BACKACHE.—It always relieves the most distressing cases of Backache, and all other kinds of Pain. It is a certain cure for all these ailments, and is the only one that is so mild as to be harmless even to children, and so effectual as to purge out from the system those impurities and corruptions which develop into loathsome disease.

HEADACHE.—It always relieves the most distressing cases of Headache, and all other kinds of Pain. It is a certain cure for all these ailments, and is the only one that is so mild as to be harmless even to children, and so effectual as to purge out from the system those impurities and corruptions which develop into loathsome disease.

TOOTHACHE.—It always relieves the most distressing cases of Toothache, and all other kinds of Pain. It is a certain cure for all these ailments, and is the only one that is so mild as to be harmless even to children, and so effectual as to purge out from the system those impurities and corruptions which develop into loathsome disease.

STOMACHACHE.—It always relieves the most distressing cases of Stomachache, and all other kinds of Pain. It is a certain cure for all these ailments, and is the only one that is so mild as to be harmless even to children, and so effectual as to purge out from the system those impurities and corruptions which develop into loathsome disease.

BACKACHE.—It always relieves the most distressing cases of Backache, and all other kinds of Pain. It is a certain cure for all these ailments, and is the only one that is so mild as to be harmless even to children, and so effectual as to purge out from the system those impurities and corruptions which develop into loathsome disease.

HEADACHE.—It always relieves the most distressing cases of Headache, and all other kinds of Pain. It is a certain cure for all these ailments, and is the only one that is so mild as to be harmless even to children, and so effectual as to purge out from the system those impurities and corruptions which develop into loathsome disease.

TOOTHACHE.—It always relieves the most distressing cases of Toothache, and all other kinds of Pain. It is a certain cure for all these ailments, and is the only one that is so mild as to be harmless even to children, and so effectual as to purge out from the system those impurities and corruptions which develop into loathsome disease.

STOMACHACHE.—It always relieves the most distressing cases of Stomachache, and all other kinds of Pain. It is a certain cure for all these ailments, and is the only one that is so mild as to be harmless even to children, and so effectual as to purge out from the system those impurities and corruptions which develop into loathsome disease.

BACKACHE.—It always relieves the most distressing cases of Backache, and all other kinds of Pain. It is a certain cure for all these ailments, and is the only one that is so mild as to be harmless even to children, and so effectual as to purge out from the system those impurities and corruptions which develop into loathsome disease.

HEADACHE.—It always relieves the most distressing cases of Headache, and all other kinds of Pain. It is a certain cure for all these ailments, and is the only one that is so mild as to be harmless even to children, and so effectual as to purge out from the system those impurities and corruptions which develop into loathsome disease.

TOOTHACHE.—It always relieves the most distressing cases of Toothache, and all other kinds of Pain. It is a certain cure for all these ailments, and is the only one that is so mild as to be harmless even to children, and so effectual as to purge out from the system those impurities and corruptions which develop into loathsome disease.

STOMACHACHE.—It always relieves the most distressing cases of Stomachache, and all other kinds of Pain. It is a certain cure for all these ailments, and is the only one that is so mild as to be harmless even to children, and so effectual as to purge out from the system those impurities and corruptions which develop into loathsome disease.

BACKACHE.—It always relieves the most distressing cases of Backache, and all other kinds of Pain. It is a certain cure for all these ailments, and is the only one that is so mild as to be harmless even to children, and so effectual as to purge out from the system those impurities and corruptions which develop into loathsome disease.

HEADACHE.—It always relieves the most distressing cases of Headache, and all other kinds of Pain. It is a certain cure for all these ailments, and is the only one that is so mild as to be harmless even to children, and so effectual as to purge out from the system those impurities and corruptions which develop into loathsome disease.

TOOTHACHE.—It always relieves the most distressing cases of Toothache, and all other kinds of Pain. It is a certain cure for all these ailments, and is the only one that is so mild as to be harmless even to children, and so effectual as to purge out from the system those impurities and corruptions which develop into loathsome disease.

STOMACHACHE.—It always relieves the most distressing cases of Stomachache, and all other kinds of Pain. It is a certain cure for all these ailments, and is the only one that is so mild as to be harmless even to children, and so effectual as to purge out from the system those impurities and corruptions which develop into loathsome disease.

BACKACHE.—It always relieves the most distressing cases of Backache, and all other kinds of Pain. It is a certain cure for all these ailments, and is the only one that is so mild as to be harmless even to children, and so effectual as to purge out from the system those impurities and corruptions which develop into loathsome disease.

HEADACHE.—It always relieves the most distressing cases of Headache, and all other kinds of Pain. It is a certain cure for all these ailments, and is the only one that is so mild as to be harmless even to children, and so effectual as to purge out from the system those impurities and corruptions which develop into loathsome disease.

TOOTHACHE.—It always relieves the most distressing cases of Toothache, and all other kinds of Pain. It is a certain cure for all these ailments, and is the only one that is so mild as to be harmless even to children, and so effectual as to purge out from the system those impurities and corruptions which develop into loathsome disease.